

Richard Golaszewski is an Executive Vice President and a Partner of GRA, Incorporated. He has almost 30 years of experience in aviation consulting, concentrating in the areas of aviation economics, safety and public policy.

Mr. Golaszewski has studied the economics of airports, airlines, aircraft manufacturing and air traffic management. He also is a frequent writer and speaker on the economics of aeronautical research and technology.

In addition to his consulting work Mr. Golaszewski has been involved in the following professional activities:

- Public Policy Committee, American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA)
- Aeronautics and Space Engineering Board (ASEB) — completed six year term in 2004)
- Economic and Forecasting Committee, Transportation Research Board (TRB)

In 2003 he was appointed as a Lifetime National Associate of the National Academy of Sciences because of his significant pro bono involvement in National Research Council activities.